TRANSMITTAL LETTER

Commissioner for Patents
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Per the request of Sr. Attorney Gillon of the Office of Petitions, enclosed is the following supplemental information relative to Applicant's Petition to Revive:

1. Copy of Unexecuted Declaration and Power of Attorney submitted February 20, 2004 with original application
2. Copy of Executed Declaration and Power of Attorney submitted August 31, 2005 (in response to Notice of Missing Parts)

Michael R. Crabb was the attorney who signed the papers to file the above-identified patent application, is listed on both the unexecuted and executed Declarations and Power of Attorneys as Attorney of Record, and has in fact been the attorney prosecuting the application throughout its history under actual and/or apparent authority. Therefore, Mr. Crabb has sufficient knowledge and standing to assert that the entire delay and filing of the required reply was unintentional.

Applicants respectfully request that their Petition to Revive be granted and/or the holding of abandonment be withdrawn. If such Petition can not be granted, Applicants respectfully request that Mr. Gillon specify in his written response what additional information would be required to obtain a favorable result.
